Notice of Residential Customer Rights and Possible Assistance (Please read carefully)

This notice informs you of your responsibilities and rights under the Cold Weather Rule. These are designed to help you with your high winter electric bills. You must ACT PROMPTLY. If you choose not to assert your rights or choose not to enter into a mutually acceptable payment plan, your electric service may be disconnected.

An electric cooperative may not disconnect the utility service of a residential cooperative member during the period between October 1 and April 30 if the disconnection affects the primary heat source of the residential unit and ALL the following conditions are met:

- (1) The household income of the cooperative member is at or below 50 percent of the state median income. Income may be verified on forms provided by the Cooperative or by the local energy assistance provider. A cooperative member meets the income requirement if they receive energy assistance or another type of public assistance that uses an income eligibility threshold set at or below 50 percent of the state median income;
- (2) A cooperative member enters into and makes timely payments under a payment agreement that considers the financial resource of the household; and
- (3) A cooperative member receives, from the Cooperative, referrals to energy assistance programs, weatherization, conservation, or other programs likely to reduce the customer's energy bills.

Third Party Notice

The Third Party Notice program applies to all cooperative members. It is intended to help those who live alone, senior citizens, disabled, and/or in landlord/renter situations.

This program notifies a third party, along with the cooperative member, that a disconnect notice has been sent. A third party could be a friend, relative, church or community agency. The third party receives copies of all disconnect notices we mail to the cooperative member, but is not required to pay the bill(s). By volunteering, the third party is able to receive and give information about personal circumstances and make a payment arrangement with People's Energy Cooperative for the cooperative member. This helps avoid the hardship that would result from the service disconnection.

If you want to name a third party, please fill out a "Third Party Notice" form, available from People's Energy Cooperative. If you know of someone who could use third party help, please direct them to our office.

The Cold Weather Law Provides You With These Options

THE RIGHT to declare your need for cold weather protection. If your household income is at or below 50 percent of the state median income, the service affecting your primary heat source cannot be disconnected for nonpayment of your bill. THE RESPONSIBILITY, if you choose, to declare a need for cold weather protection complete a "Cold Weather Shutoff Protection" application and return it to People's Energy Cooperative prior to the disconnect date. You must contact People's Energy Cooperative immediately to arrange a payment plan.

The arrangement will cover your existing arrears plus the estimated usage during the payment arrangement period. Failure to comply with or changing the existing payment arrangement may result in the service being disconnected.

THE RIGHT not to be involuntarily disconnected after business hours, on a Friday or a weekend, the day before or on a holiday, or until at least thirty (30) days after the postmark on the notice to disconnect or until fifteen (15) days after the notice and information has been personally delivered.
