

Are you interested in participating in the board election process?

The Cooperative is seeking members to serve on the Nominating Committee for the 2022 board elections as well as board candidates from districts 1 and 6.

The Nominating Committee is responsible for seeking out members who may be interested in serving on the Board and then vetting candidates before nominating them to the membership for a vote.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Cooperative and represents its members in policy and rate making. Directors are elected to three-year terms, meet monthly, and attend cooperative events along with conferences and training sessions.

For more information, please contact Gwen Stevens, director of cooperative relations, at (507) 367-7015 or gstevens@peoplesenergy.coop.

Voting Districts up for Election:

District One: Cascade, Elgin, Farmington, Haverhill, and sections one through 18 of Rochester (north half)
