You don't have to choose.

Too many low-income Minnesotans have to choose between paying their energy bill and other necessities – food, medicine and healthcare. Minnesota's Energy Assistance Program offers eligible residents help to pay their energy bills so they do not have to choose between life's necessities.

Spread the word to your friends and family.

The Energy Assistance Program:

- Serves both renters and homeowners
- Provides help from $300 to $1,600 to pay for home heating, with an average benefit of about $500
- Benefit amounts are based on the household's heating costs, household size and income.
- Helps with past due bills, energy disconnections, no/low fuel in the tank & homeowners' furnace repairs
- Eligibility is based on the household's past 3 months of income, and assets are not counted
